

meet our artisans

Today's consumers value the authenticity and personal touch of artisanal creations. At the AGHA Gift + Home Expo, we proudly showcase a diverse range of creators, featuring homewares, artworks, stationery, souvenirs, gifts, and ceramics.

Aiai Zhang AL8

Aiai Zhang, the artist behind Breezy Bird Studio, creates stunning watercolour and mixed media artwork inspired by nature's movement and colours. Since 2016, she has developed a range of eco-friendly products, including greeting cards and art prints, all made in Australia.

Jane Elliott of Modstitch AL3 has teamed up with Australian artists to create a collection of beginner-friendly cross-stitch kits, offering an enjoyable and accessible hobby for all. Each kit comes complete with everything needed to create beautiful, modern, and colourful designs, making it easy for anyone to dive in. These kits are the perfect addition to any gift collection.

Aiai Zhang AL8

Artist Kayla Reay uses coloured pencils to create vibrant illustrations that celebrate the diversity of birdlife. Her artworks are transformed into sustainably-driven, Australian-made products, including greeting cards, art prints, and sticker sheets. Her cheerful co-workers, three budgies named Buckwheat, Barley, and Farro, provide inspiration along the way.

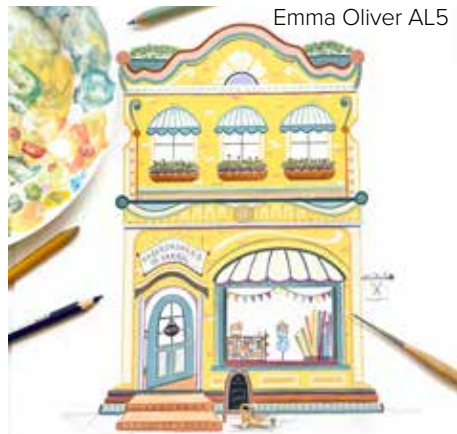

Jessica Serov AL6

Jessica Serov, artist, printmaker, and graphic designer behind The Blue Stamp, earned a Master's degree from the National Art School and has been inspired by both local and international experiences. Jessica makes art accessible, creating homewares and gifts to inspire.

Emma Oliver AL5

Zenti Designs features whimsical gouache illustrations by artist Emma Oliver, offering colourful greeting cards, archival prints, and paper goods. The collection showcases Aussie birds, intricate florals, and her signature "Zenti Shop" prints, with new designs constantly being developed.

LouiseM Studio is run by designer and maker Louise Martiensen. The studio creates slip-cast tableware and homewares designed for everyday use, blending beauty with functionality to foster a lasting connection with its pieces.
